WEDDINGS & EVENTS

Could anything be lovelier than a wedding set amid the serene mountains of Western North Carolina and Upstate South Carolina? Cedar Mountain Weddings and Events is uniquely qualified to make your day an exceptionally beautiful wedding experience.

Specializing in wedding coordination and organization, we design a complete canvas for your special day, down to the very last detail. From developing a unique wedding theme that showcases your individual style and taste to creating a flawless reception and dramatic departure, we give your day the attention it deserves.

Whether you are still setting a date or are already planning details, our consultants can assist you in fulfilling all your wedding day dreams. We streamline the entire planning process, addressing each and every detail to your complete satisfaction.

We use our expertise and talent to ensure a stress-free event by:

- Getting organized, creating time lines, and meeting deadlines
- Designing, developing, and producing invitations and programs
- Recommending and securing ceremony and rehearsal venues
- Matching local vendors (caterers, bakers, florists) to your specific needs
- Researching and selecting musicians and entertainment options
- Planning, implementing and coordinating your reception and related events.
